Ladder Ball

Each ladder has three rungs, each rung scoring a different point value.

One common method of scoring is to have the rungs be one, two and three points. In one variety the top is worth 1, middle is 2, and bottom is 3. Points are tallied at the end of each round, after all teams have thrown their bolas. The bolas suspended on the ladder score the points for that rung, often with the goal of getting at least 21 points to win.

Price: $195

Shuffleboard

This tabletop shuffleboard is constructed of wood and has a face imprint that measures 9in x 40in.

Includes easy-glide bearings in red and blue color that make gameplay smooth and skillful. With the ability to fully customize the face imprint with 4-color process, you can make this game suit any of your ideas and it will certainly be sure to bring fun to the table.
